

During week beginning 30th March 2020 the children have been spending time working on their chick paper maché masks inspired by the real chicks the school has been looking after, before and since they hatched. Here are the finished products:

Chick handling 8 days after hatching. They're getting much bigger.

